ENCL: 1 Application 1

To

The Executive Engineer,

Bellary Division,

BELLARY.

My husband N. Govinda Shastriar, a clerk in your office died on 10-6-1934, which fact has already been brought to your notice. He died at the fag-end of his service, having saved nothing. But on the contrary he had incurred a debt of ~~only~~ about Rs. 1300 for the marriage of his only surviving daughter and towards his three month's continued sickness, just before his death and etc.,

A wet land and a house is all he possessed and these having been mortgaged for the said debt, are now proposed to be disposed off towards the liquidation of the same and thus I am bereft of all means of maintaining myself during the remainder of my life.

Moreover my daughter is on the verge of attaining her age and I have to incur an expenditure of atleast Rs. 100/- towards her nuptial marriage. There is a brother of my husband, who is himself unemployed and is unable to maintain himself.

Hence, I am ^a helpless widow, devoid of all means of living. I therefore earnestly request you sir, to kindly help ^{me} by granting a compassionate gratuity to the full extent as admissible by rule which will be solely utilised for my maintenance.

For which act of kindness and generosity I shall ever pray.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Yours obediently,

H O S P E T.

2). I enquired Sankaramma & N Govinda Sastry, her relatives (ie brother-in-law and mother-in-law) and neighbours and recorded their statements. The record of enquiry is enclosed.

3). The deceased has left immovable property ie S.N.O. 73-2 wet-double crop land - measuring bearing an assessment of Rs 36.7-0-0 of Belagodu Village and a house Hospet. Door No. 2903 and a small land of Kaganur Village. Hadagali Sub. division. The total value of the immovable property is estimated at Rs 1220/- (One thousand two hundred and twenty only) by the her neighbours.

I am of opinion that the immovable property alone is worth about Rs 1500 (One thousand five hundred only). The movable property possessed may come to Rs 100/- (One hundred only).

I learn that the deceased is neither a member of the mutual benefit fund nor a holder of a Life Assurance policy. It is said that he has subscribed to a general provident fund. The total amount of general provident fund may be about Rs 600/-.

As regards liabilities, it is said that a debt of Rs (1450-00) One thousand four hundred ^(and fifty) only is outstanding.

If the total ~~total~~ liabilities are paid from the total assets, she will have only Rs 1600 - ~~1450~~ = Rs. ¹⁵⁰~~150~~ 100/- This amount is hardly sufficient for ~~her~~ the nuptials of her daughter.

4) ~~Her~~ Sankaramma, her in-law and nephew are in the joint family. Br. in law is unemployed and nephew has joined as examiner in the District Revenue Const. Hoped only very recently via 21.9.24 during the leave arrangements of the permanent incumbent.

5) She has one daughter depending on her. Her age is about 15 years. She is married but nuptials not yet taken place.

The descriptive roll is also enclosed duly filed in #17

The ~~bequeathed~~ family is rich. She really deserves help at the hands of the benign Government. The undivided members may at any time separate themselves claiming a share of the ^{property} ~~estate~~. According to Hindu Law the whole property may go away from her hands leaving for her nothing make issues. Such amount as the Government considers necessary for her maintenance may be kindly granted. ~~for her~~ joint family. My brother purchased a 1.87 of B in about Rs 600. It stands in his name. One house done in 1903 in XIV Ward Hospet was acquired him from his father-in-law & he retained a part of it at a cost of Rs 200. The house is assessed to municipal tax of Rs 0-12-0 for half year. & present value of the house cannot exceed Rs 600.

 My brother was paying about Rs 100 per annum the land. He ~~also~~ ^{also} has 12 acres of land in Haganur village Haddagalli taluk which has a high value in view of high population.
 House is not let out for rent as we are in it.
 There is no other property. My brother contacted a of Rs 1300 from Gajananthi Vina Vishwanath &
 a registered mortgage deed hypothecating the land of the house. No portion of the debt has been liquidated.
 I am the most conversant to the property. I am not employed & have hitherto been under the protection of my late brother. I have no means of maintaining my brother's widow except from the proceeds of the above property. I shall produce the registered deed.

Statement given by N. Shankaranna, widow of late N. Govinda Sastri, Clerk, P. R. D.

My husband has not married any other wife after he.
My name as called by my parental side is Shankaranna, but as custom goes, I was named Lakshmi Bai, by my husband's house at the time of marriage. As both husband's and parents' names are in one in the same town of Mysore and in one or two streets street, no currency was given to the name Lakshmi Bai after the
